

Improper Schools Simple Services Aviation Menace, Today in France Says Lindbergh

Colonel Lindbergh also urges the Regulation of All Flying Activities by the Department of Commerce—Experienced Pilots Needed.

(Copyright by the Associated Press.) New York, Nov. 11 (AP).—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh has responded to a request by The Associated Press that he write his impressions on aviation in America and its future, based upon his observations during his recent unique flying tour of the United States under the auspices of the Daniel Guggenheim fund for the promotion of aeronautics.

In Colonel Lindbergh's statement he stresses the menace to aviation caused by improper training schools and their product of inexperienced fliers; he urges the regulation of all flying activities by the Department of Commerce and further regulations to promote the factor of safety in the air.

His statement follows: "One of the gravest problems facing the advance of aviation is that of personnel. Flying is safe today but it must be combined with training and experience. We have not yet reached the stage in the development of aircraft where the pilot plays a minor part in the operation of an airplane and until we progress to that stage it is essential to have trained and experienced operators for safe flying.

"Thousands of miles are flown each day over the airways of America with a record of which any ground transportation company might be proud.

"It has been strikingly demonstrated both in America and in Europe that there need be no fear for personal safety in traveling with modern equipment over organized airways.

Experienced Pilots Needed. There is another phase of commercial aviation, however, which is in need of regulation. There are not enough experienced pilots to meet the rapidly increasing demand for their services. New men must be trained and schools have been established for their training. In these schools lies the greatest menace confronting aviation.

"Young America wants to fly and is going to fly. Thousands of young men are entering and preparing to enter aviation schools. Most of them have limited finances and consequently must enter a school which has a small tuition fee.

Unfortunately there are many of these institutions operating today and often graduating students with less than ten hours of flying training. These graduates must find some way to continue flying and, since they have no money to rent or buy a plane, they must also earn at least their expenses as they fly.

This situation results in inexperienced pilots carrying passengers for hire, often under adverse conditions, in flights which really should be under supervision as part of their training. Even if an accident is averted during the first hundred or two hundred hours, the pilot still lacks much of the knowledge and technique of the art of flying which should have been learned during the training period.

"We have surprisingly few accidents on our airlines and with our experienced operators but we read only too often of crashes which upon investigation are found in almost every instance to have resulted from inexperience and lack of judgment on the part of the pilot.

Regulation Necessary. "Apparently the only method of combating the existing situation is first through regulation of flying schools and second through regulation of the qualifications required of a pilot engaging in commercial flying and especially in passenger carrying.

"The department of commerce, through the bureau of aeronautics is regulating interstate flying very successfully, but it has no control of flying activities within individual states and, of course, the student pilot confines himself to the borders of his own state during his most dangerous period.

"During the two and a half decades of its existence aviation has progressed toward ever increasing safety.

"The next advance will come through regulation of air activities including certain minimum requirements of flying school courses, but before extensive regulation can become effective the department of commerce must be given the right to regulate all flying activities instead of interstate traffic only.

"Either through federal or individual state action we are in need of uniform flying regulations throughout the union.

"A number of states have adopted the department of commerce regulations but the majority have either no regulation whatsoever, or have enacted special rules which will in the end only serve to retard aeronautical development. I say this in the interest of the safety of the men who want to be pilots and of those of our people who want to fly."

Simple Ceremony at Tomb of the Unknown Soldier Attended by President of Republic and Other Prominent Men

Paris, Nov. 11 (AP).—The people of Paris—several thousand of them clad in black and with drawn memories—seared faces—massed reverently around the tomb of the Unknown Soldier today to commemorate the ending of the World War.

Hundreds of battle-scarred flags fluttered in gusts of winter's first snowfall as the shivering crowds observed the two-minute silence at 11 o'clock.

Every branch of France's military service was represented in the long columns of marching men which filled the Champs Elysee under the Arc de Triomphe, around which men bearing the marks of the great conflict sat proudly erect in wheel chairs.

President Doumergue, Premier Poincare, Marshal Foch and others prominent in the life of France attended the simple ceremony. There was a fanfare of trumpets, the Marseillaise being the military band, two petards announcing the beginning of the reverent silence and two more ending it.

Americans who served in France before 1917 as well as some of those who came to France under the Stars and Stripes participated in this morning's ritual. At the American Cathedral of Holy Trinity—as at hundreds of houses of worship throughout the city—special services were held in memory of those who gave their lives in the war, scores of wreaths being placed in the churches.

American Red Cross Campaign

President Coolidge Calls Attention To The Great Work of The Red Cross During Last Year—Goal of Five Million Members Set.

Washington, Nov. 11 (AP).—Calling upon the people of America for support in its relief and humanitarian work, the American Red Cross today initiated its eleventh annual enrollment campaign.

With its disaster relief forces already engaged in mitigating the suffering caused by the country's third major catastrophe within a year, the New England flood, the organization urged upon its members a renewal of their membership and invited others to join.

As president of the Red Cross, President Coolidge in a statement issued last night, directed the attention of the country to the work of the Red Cross and said that the "unprecedented demands of the last year have demonstrated most forcibly to the American people the necessity for still further increasing the support which we must give to this great humanitarian institution.

A goal of five million members has been set. Individual chapters have been given quotas to fill and many voluntarily promised that it would be exceeded.

Two Minutes of Silence Here

Armistice Day was observed with the tolling of the fire bells and the blowing of taps at 11 o'clock this morning when the residents of Kingston dropped their work and stood for two minutes in silence as a tribute to those who had lost their lives in the World War. The silence was generally observed throughout the city, and buglers in various parts of the city as the hands of the clocks marked 11 o'clock blew taps.

This evening the day will be observed with the big Armistice Ball at the state armory under the auspices of Kingston Post of the American Legion. This morning one of the city's tractors was used to haul the cannon from the armory to Elmendorf street where they were stored over night. By removing the cannons from the armory more room is afforded those who attend the ball this evening.

Throughout the city flags are flying from the staffs along the sidewalks and from lofty flag poles and many buildings are draped with the national colors.

Coolidge Places Wreath on Tomb

Washington, Nov. 11 (AP).—President Coolidge laid a wreath upon the tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington Cemetery today and then paused for a moment along with several hundred who had gathered in silent tribute.

When the president stepped back Mrs. Coolidge placed a single white rose upon the marble slab and the army band in new uniforms played the Star Spangled Banner, the low rumbling of the drums penetrating the hills which rim the Potomac.

The ceremony was simple and lasted but a few moments. Mr. Coolidge was accompanied to Arlington by Secretary Davis of the war department, Major General C. P. Egan, chief of staff, Secretary of the Navy, Admiral Eberle, chief of naval operations.

Great Joy Nine Years Ago Today

No Organized Celebration of the Day But Canadian Sacrifice Will Be Remembered and Chaplains Will Gather at Tomb.

Washington, Nov. 11 (AP).—Just nine years ago today a path of ecstasy and joy swept the world around the tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington cemetery. A path of joy with her European and American majesty pean of thanksgiving from a battered railroad car to a remote section of war-torn Europe where a message had come that straight to the heart the great conflict was over; peace at last had come.

Excitement and joy knew no bounds. The American and Canadian armies had triumphed, that America's armies would soon be engaged for familiar shores, was a thought and dampened only by the thought of the many empty places in the ranks of that victorious army coming. The gold starred service flag torn on a new meaning.

The boys came home, and America poured out a heart filled with gratitude. But with peace came also problems to vex and perplex the world throughout the nine years that have passed since that first Armistice Day. The world set itself to the task of reconstruction. As on all of the succeeding anniversaries, with one exception, there was today no organized celebration. Only in 1921, when the Unknown Soldier was laid at rest in Arlington Cemetery, has America voiced a tribute of nation-wide significance.

There was however, a new note in the day's observance. Dedicated to the memory of Americans who fought and fell beside their own sons, the government of Canada had erected at Arlington a magnificent cross of sacrifice. Carefully laid plans called for its unveiling today in a ceremony in which Canadian and American troops united.

President Coolidge, as usual on Armistice Day, planned to visit the tomb of the Unknown Soldier and lay upon it a wreath. Afterward, the Canadian contingent was invited to lunch at the White House.

The day's program also called for a gathering at the Unknown's tomb of the group of army chaplains who participated in the dedication in 1921 and later for services honoring their own war dead, at the separate memorial they themselves have erected.

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT OUSTED, STUDENTS STRIKE

Milwaukee, Nov. 11 (AP).—School was "out" for 300 striking students at Cudahy High today, and also for Superintendent E. C. Seifert.

There were hopes among parents and police who had to handle a "We want Seifert" demonstration yesterday, that the students might end their strike after a chance to think it over. Prospects for the return of Superintendent Seifert, however, were not so bright.

"Insubordination and impudence" were words used by the school board in ordering Seifert discharged after 11 years' service. "Politics," retorted Seifert.

The student strike, while reaching demonstrative heights yesterday, including parades through downtown streets and "We want Seifert" mass meetings on vacant lots, has not yet become a 100 per cent affair.

About 50 students have stuck to their classes and have deprecated the action of the strikers, although some of them expressed the hope that the superintendent would be reinstated.

UNEMPLOYED WELSH MINERS OBSERVE ARMISTICE DAY

Bath, England, Nov. 11 (AP).—A. J. Cook's little "Coxey's army" of unemployed Welsh miners who are marching on London to press for action on the unemployment situation, observed the Armistice Day silence at eleven o'clock this morning and then started over the hills toward London.

Nearly half of the marchers were without overcoats and some of them have threatened to quit unless given more clothing to ward off the icy winds which have accompanied them thus far on their march. The leaders of the little army, however, say that they are helpless to comply as they have no extra supplies of clothing. The marchers expect to arrive at Chippensham about dusk.

WORK PROGRESSING ON POUGHKEEPSIE BRIDGE

The west caisson of the new Poughkeepsie bridge, which it being sunk at the rate of two or three inches a day, is but five feet seven inches of reaching its permanent bottom. Another month's work is expected to complete the final fitting of the caisson. Statements concerning difficulty in getting the caisson permanently fixed are ridiculous, according to engineers on the job.

Some tilting was experienced, as on the east caisson, when the one morning, was forced down by bad weather at La Ferte-Hu-Aube.

BELGIAN FLIERS FORCED DOWN BY BAD WEATHER

Chaumont, France, Nov. 11 (AP).—Flight Lieutenant George Medaets and Jean Verheegen, Belgian aviators who started on a nonstop flight to the Belgian Congo from Courtrai this morning, were forced down by bad weather at La Ferte-Hu-Aube.

Reports received here stated that the Belgian fliers were seriously hurt, but details were lacking.

Last War Did Not End War

Declares National Commander of American Legion in Armistice Day Address—Only an Armistice Was Signed.

St. Louis, Nov. 11 (AP).—People of this country more and more are coming to a realization that the last war did not end war. Edward E. Stafford, national commander of the American Legion, declared here today in an Armistice Day address at a luncheon given by American Legion posts of St. Louis.

"They realize," he added, "that as a matter of fact only an armistice was signed.

"With the exception of a very few in this nation, the people are determined that when another war comes all of the resources of the nation shall be completely mobilized at the beginning of the war."

"We should be warned by past experiences and realize that the words of those who sit at the council tables only have such weight as is given by the power or force of arms which they represent," continued the Legion commander. "In 1922, we gave up 800,000 tons of new capital ships. Great Britain gave up 500,000 tons of old ships and Japan 325,000 tons of similar old junk. Today we stand probably third in naval values, but thanks is fervently given that the Geneva conference last summer opened the eyes of many thinking Americans and we may look forward to this next Congress to answer our prayers for adequate military preparedness."

Legionnaires who made the pilgrimage to France were regarded by their commander as agents of good will, aiding in "cementing ties that bind."

Frankness and meeting people of other nations face to face does more to bring about a friendly feeling than all the peace treaties in the world. Contact breeds understanding.

"We have all seen war and we do not want to see another."

To Aid in Red Cross Drive

The Parent-Teacher Association of School No. 2 met Wednesday afternoon at the school and agreed to take charge of the Red Cross drive in the Seventh Ward. Miss McCullough reported for the program committee and it was received with great appreciation both for the work in planning the year's entertainment and also for the excellent choice of speakers. Children of the various grades will entertain at each meeting of the association.

Mrs. Mary C. Doremus, State Charities' agent, was the speaker of the afternoon and gave an interesting talk concerning child welfare work. She related many incidents concerning work with neglected, delinquent and handicapped children. Children of 3-B grade presented a charming little playlet of the Thanksgiving season which was greatly enjoyed.

Exiled from His Native State

Ripley, Miss., Nov. 11 (AP).—George Dees, Mississippi farmer, attentively listened while Circuit Judge Thomas E. Pegram exiled him from his native state, bowed his head and then walked out of court for an unannounced destination.

Dees was banished from membership forever because he shot and maimed for life Zack Massey. Under an agreement reached between Dees and the man he crippled, which Judge Pegram agreed to, Dees deeded to Massey his farm, offered to a pistol and then leave the state. The farm was valued at around $1,200.

Armistice Day Quiet in Dublin

Dublin, Nov. 11 (AP).—Armistice Day passed quietly in Dublin, where a long procession of Irish soldiers who served in the world war marched to Phoenix Park to honor their dead comrades at a cenotaph erected there. A contingent of Italian fascists took part in the parade.

Numerous union jacks were carried in the procession despite the strong protests which had been voiced against the practice by Eamon De Valera and all the Republican deputies, but no attempt was made to interfere with the procession.

JEWELRY SPILLED WHEN AUTOS CRASH

This noon a Chevrolet car driven by George L. Van Moppes, a jewelry salesman from New York city, and the automobile occupied by Dr. Julius L. and Dr. Julius I. Gifford of this city collided in front of the county clerk's office. The force of the impact was such that the Chevrolet car was turned over on its side, and the driver sustained a cut hand which was dressed by Dr. E. H. Logghead.

The car contained a number of cases filled with jewelry, some of which were spilled out but all were recovered and restored to the cases. Both cars were somewhat damaged.

Oyster House Opens Saturday

The Oyster and Chop House at 13 Broadway will open for business at 11:30 o'clock Saturday morning. Each patron will be presented with a souvenir on the opening day. The new lunch room is conducted by the proprietors of the former Popular Lunch on the Strand.

Dr. Keefe Cures 5 Cancer Cases

Brought Here From California to Treat Three Cases. He Has Had Nine Under Treatment of Which Five Are Reported Cured—To Return to California.

Dr. C. F. Keefe, who was brought here from California to treat three cases of facial cancer, is planning to return to California about December 14, and will spend the winter in that state, returning to Kingston early next March to spend the summer in this city.

Dr. Keefe had only been in the city a few days when the number of cancer cases brought to him for treatment was increased to nine, and of that number five cases are now reported to be cured. Several of the cases have proved stubborn, but at last have responded to treatment.

Several weeks ago a former patient of Dr. Keefe, who had been cured of a cancer on the lip, interested himself and telegraphed Dr. Keefe, asking him if he would return to Kingston to treat three cases of facial cancer among the former patient's friends.

It is said that some of the cases Dr. Keefe is reported to have cured since his return to Kingston had previously received radium treatment for the removal of the face cancer, but it had not proved successful.

Patients who have been treated by Dr. Keefe state that the physician uses what appears to be a white powder which is placed on the cancer, and that it requires about three weeks for the powder to successfully act on the cancer.

Dr. Keefe before removing to California had been engaged in the practice of medicine in Kingston for many years, and during that time had treated about twenty-five cases of facial cancer. In all but one case his treatment had proved successful. The case that he was unable to cure had been brought to him too late to be successfully treated.

Those who have had facial cancers removed by Dr. Keefe are wildly enthusiastic over the work accomplished by the physician. Several local residents who have had facial cancers removed by him some ten or more years ago state that they have never been troubled since, and the only trace left by the cancer is a slight scar.

REPUBLICANS WIN TOWN BOARD OF WAUWATOSING

Although a Democratic supervisor was elected in the town of Wauwatosa Tuesday the Democrats lost the town board 4 to 2, which will stand Republican. John D. Rippert, Democrat, was re-elected supervisor defeating Herman S. Wells, Republican, by 233 votes. Townsend Fitzgerald, Republican, was elected town clerk; Frank Evans, Republican, town superintendent of highways; William L. Hoornbeek, Democrat, collector; Howard Mosnier, Democrat, assessor for four years; E. B. TerBush, Democrat, assessor for two years; George Lamont, Republican, and Benjamin C. West, Republican, justices of peace; DuBois Schoonmaker, Republican, and Thomas M. Van Deusen, Republican, overseers of poor; Ben M. Taylor, Republican, school director; constables, Graham Bennett, John Traphagen and Charles Clark, Republicans, and Arch Freer and Oscar Brown, Democrats.

DECLARES DECISION HAS GIVEN HIM MORE POWER

Mt. Carmel, Pa., Nov. 11 (AP).—Mayor William Thompson of Chicago, believes that the decision of the Illinois supreme court declaring the Illinois primary law to be unconstitutional has given him added power in the naming of delegates to the next national Republican convention.

The Chicago mayor, who addressed the anthracite cooperative congress here last night, predicted that as a result of the decision he would be able to control the entire block of 61 Illinois votes. Pointing out that under the convention system it would be easy for a man with the Cook county delegation solidly behind him to draw sufficient support from down state by "trading" to choose an entire state ticket, Mr. Thompson said he believed the same would hold true in selecting delegates to the national convention.

Armistice Day in Great Britain

London, Nov. 11 (AP).—Great Britain kept the great silence today in commemoration of the signing of the Armistice nine years ago. With King George and the royal family leading in the homage paid the war dead at the Cenotaph in Whitehall, millions of men, women and children throughout the British Empire stood with heads bared and bowed for minutes in silent thanksgiving for the end of the war, in sorrowful tribute to those slain in battle.

Deep solemnity, simple but even more moving in its reverence and sincerity than the wild and joyous celebrations when peace was young, marked the services around the great, empty tomb in the heart of London, which they fought their first engagement in 1914.

Charles Schoonmaker of the town of Esopus, who has been arrested so many times that he has forgotten the number, was arrested Thursday on Abel street by Officer Schick, who charged him with disorderly conduct in using indecent and vile language on the street. This morning Judge Shufeldt sentenced Schoonmaker to thirty days in jail.

Mrs. Youmans Sees Starling Development in Teapot Dome Case

Birth of Twins Results in Suit for Larger Payments—Brings Suit Against Composer's Father.

Chicago, Nov. 11 (AP).—When Vincent Youmans composed "Teapot Dome" he could not have anticipated that "two" was a digit that produced litigation both for himself and his father, Vincent Youmans, Sr.

Two actions have been filed by Mrs. Youmans, the composer's chorister girl wife, in Chicago courts, one against the husband for separate maintenance. The other is a suit for $100,000 against Youmans's father and its nature is not revealed either in the principle filed yesterday or by counsel for Mrs. Youmans.

The younger Youmans, before leaving for New York, said he supposed the suit against his father was for "satisfaction of ambitions, or something like that."

The "two" whom counsel for Mrs. Youmans blame for the separate maintenance suit, are twins, born to the couple about two and a half months ago shortly after the Youmans had signed a "separation contract." John R. Frucht, attorney for Mrs. Youmans, said that under the contract Youmans agreed to pay his wife $100 a week for herself and the "child," that was expected for contingency. The mother now seeks larger weekly payments to meet demands of a larger family.

Jury Finds Two Autoists Guilty

Nunzio Valeria and James McCordie Fined $200 Each for Driving Automobile While Intoxicated.

Nunzio Valeria and James McCordie, both of Kingston, were found guilty in police court Thursday of driving automobiles while intoxicated, and were fined $200 each.

Valeria, who lives on Gage street, was arrested last month by Lauren Minasian, when Valeria crashed into his automobile on Foxhall avenue.

The case came up for trial Thursday before Judge Shufeldt in police court. Attorney Thomas F. Coughlin appeared for Valeria and Attorney F. C. Merritt for the district attorney's office.

Thursday evening a jury trial was held in police court and after hearing the evidence in the case, James McCordie, who resides in Wilbur, was found guilty by the jury of driving a car while intoxicated and crashing into the parked car of John D. Schoonmaker, on Foxhall avenue.

$200. Attorney Thomas F. Coughlin appeared for McCordie while Attorney F. C. Merritt appeared for the district attorney's office.

Accepts Call to Redeemer Church

The Rev. Oscar E. Brandorff of Hillside, N. J., Accepts Call to Pastorate of Wurts Street Church—Assumes Duties December 1.

The Rev. Oscar E. Brandorff of Hillside, N. J., has accepted the call extended him by the congregation of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer on Wurts street to become pastor of the church, and will assume his pastoral duties on December 1.

The Rev. Mr. Brandorff succeeds the Rev. William J. Nelson, who recently resigned to become pastor of the First Lutheran Church of Pateroster, N. J. Mr. Brandorff has been highly successful in his work as pastor of the Lutheran Church at Hillside, and his congregation accepted his resignation with marked regret.

The Rev. Mr. Brandorff is said to be an eloquent, pulpit orator, and when he preached in the local church he made a decided impression on the members of the congregation who were so pleased with his sermon that the call to become pastor of the church was unanimous.

BORDEN & COMPANY TO ENTERTAIN AT DINNER

Borden & Company of New York will entertain the members of the firms of F. B. Matthews & Company, Everett & Treadwell and Leon Blankfield, at a dinner at the Stuyvesant Hotel on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. E. J. Fenton is the local representative of the company and Mr. Volois, district manager of the Borden concern, will also be present.

OBSERVE ARMISTICE DAY ON BATTLE GROUND

Brussels, Nov. 11 (AP).—A company of 200 of the "Old Contemptibles," survivors of the British regular army forces that helped stem the first rush of the German troops at the beginning of the World War, observed two minutes silence in honor of Armistice Day at Mons, on the ground over which they fought their first engagement in 1914.

Victory Ball at Armory Tonight

Biggest Social Success in History of Kingston Legion Post Anticipated—Celebrated Entertainers and Orchestra Provided—Radio Performance Starts at 8:15.

A huge audience is expected to attend the American Legion Victory Ball tonight in the New York State National Guard armory. The Victory Ball promises to be the biggest social success in the history of the post.

An amplifier has been installed in the ballroom to carry every syllable uttered by the performers taking part in the unique radio show to every section of the armory.

The bleachers have been removed and 1,700 chairs will occupy space on the floor of the great amphitheatre. An unobstructed view of the stage will be had by spectators sitting in the balcony.

The hall has been symmetrically decorated with bunting with a background of blue and gold. The large stage has been elevated sufficiently to be clearly seen from every part of the armory. Modern equipment will be used in furnishing the stage with footlights and spot flashes.

The doors of the armory will open 7:30. Tickets will be sold at the window to accommodate those who have not as yet bought them. The radio performance will start promptly at 8:15 and will draw to a close at 10 o'clock.

The Entertainment Program.
Phillips Carlin, WEAF announcer, as master of ceremonies, will get the show under way. Torre and Stivano, celebrated violin and accordion team, will be next to appear before the microphone in the same manner as conducted in a radio studio. Then Vaughn de Leath, the "original radio girl" and talented entertainer, will take the stage. Milton J. Cross will follow Miss de Leath to the footlights. He possesses a fine tenor voice and will sing several songs. The next number will be the debut of the Colonial Choristers, a group of prominent men and women of Kingston. Happy Harry Hayden, jolly and lively comedian and musician, will bring the radio show to a close with his clever performance.

Music by WEAF Vagabonds.
At 10 o'clock, Don Marcotte and his well known WEAF Vagabonds will be introduced to the audience, while a corps of Legionnaires will quickly and efficiently remove the chairs for dancing. The famous dance orchestra will immediately play music for dancing. Mr. Marcotte has been requested to grant but two encores for a single dance so that all may have plenty of opportunity to dance their favorite pieces.

While dancing is in progress, the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Legion will serve all kinds of refreshments from artistically decorated booths along the side lines.

An efficient floor committee has arranged for a corps of ushers to escort patrons to their seats without confusion. There will be no reserved seats and everyone will have an equal opportunity to secure front space if desired. However, great care has been taken to see that every seat on the floor of the armory is spaced so as all may clearly see the stage. Dancing will continue until 10 a. m.

USED CARS

"with an OK that counts"

Building Quality into Used Cars

Unusual facilities for reconditioning automobiles make possible the high value found in our dependable used cars.

In the first place, we can tell exactly what needs to be done to a car without long and expensive experimenting. Our mechanics are thoroughly competent—and, working with special tools, they accomplish a given task in the minimum time. Furthermore, we use only genuine parts for replacement purposes.

As a result, our reconditioned cars simply cannot be matched for value.

BLOOMINGTON.

Bloomington, Nov. 10.—Mrs. Neal Hotelling and daughter, Ruth, spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. E. Coutant, and mother, Mrs. K. Kerber and sons, Fritz and Henry, spent the week end in her home here.

Church services at 9:45 a. m. Sunday school following.

Mrs. P. Smodes invited a number of her friends from here and Kingston to the old fashioned quilting bee.

A very enjoyable day was had by all.

Mrs. Rossicoe and son, Bobby, spent the past week with her sister, Mrs. J. Junkers.

Joe Junkers spent the week end at his home here. He returned to his position Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Couso of Kingston spent a couple of days of the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Neal Hotelling and family.

We always have wondered who the fellow was that makes the paper pants that go on lamb chops.

ASHOKAN

Ashokan, Nov. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Nethaway of Hookare, N. Y., and son, Arthur, spent Monday night with Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Kinney on their way home from Shohola, Pa.

Justus North and Alonzo Davis bagged a nice deer recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Atkins have returned from the city.

A number from this place attended the Dutch supper at Shokan Wednesday night.

Mrs. Charlotte visited friends here Tuesday.

Lacey Sampson of the team of Sampson & Douglas, living at Glenford, are returning to New York city after an extensive vacation to begin their season's work on the Keith-Albee vaudeville circuit November 21.

The M. E. Ladies' Aid Society will hold an all-day's quilting at the Church hall Thursday, November 17.

Each member is requested to furnish some article of food for the dinner.

The next monthly business meeting of the M. E. Ladies' Aid Society will be held at the home of Mrs. Jennie Greene Thursday afternoon December 1.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Old Will Reveals

Gigantic Patrimony

ROSELLE, Ill.—Possibility of inheritance of a portion of a $200,000,000 estate of the late John Nicholas Emerson, New York, has aroused the interest of several of the 300 heirs residing in this vicinity. Emerson, a partner of the original John Jacob Astor of New York, who died 119 years ago, left an estate of $140,000,000 in a 50-year trust fund.

The Emerson heirs hope to establish their claim through an old will which Mrs. Edna Carmahan of Hollisville, Colo., said she found in a chest in her home recently.

Whales Nearly Extinct, State Bureau Warns

HOQUIAM, Wash.—Solemn warning is given by the state department of fisheries that if the killing of north Pacific whales continues at the present rate, within a few years the earth's largest animal will be extinct.

Each year whaling ships, equipped with the latest improved weapons and appliances, search the Arctic for these denizens of the deep. The industry produces big revenue and unless an international agreement limits or suspends for a period of years the hunting of whales, nothing will stop the destruction.

This season the catch of whales from the Alaskan coast stations is large and it is reported the mammals are easily taken. However, it is reported that every year the whales grow smaller, which, say authorities on the subject, is evidence that continued hunting prevents the full development of the huge species and only the undersized ones are victims.

Tokens of Tropics Found in Greenland

COPENHAGEN.—Dr. Laue Koch, Danish explorer, has returned to Copenhagen from an exploration of Greenland with evidence that Greenland was once a tropical country.

Koch and two assistants explored the coastland of North Scoresby Sound of Denmark. The exploration is considered important, because it shows inhabitants new routes to north Greenland. Koch brought back the largest collection of specimens ever taken from Greenland, eight tons of fossils, plants and animals showing three geological periods.

Some specimens indicate that at one time there was tropical life on Greenland, such plants as palms growing there in abundance. Signs of numerous hot springs and rich animal life were found.

Do you want to get rid of bad breath caused by Catarrh or from accumulations of mucus in the nostrils and throat? Kapex will do it.

Do you want to keep your throat free from irritation and inflammation and prevent sore throat? You need Kapex.

Do you want to breathe nature's pure air thru clean open purified nostrils and stop mouth breathing? Use Kapex.

Kapex is a triumph of Science—the result of years of experiment—in this grand formula there are no less than 17 Ethereal Oils and organic extracts.

PURIFIES, SOOTHES AND HEALS

What is the result? Kapex purifies, soothes and heals the inflamed, irritated mucus soaked membrane and is delightful to use because of its wholesome fragrance.

There is nothing cheap about this modern formula—the oils are obtained from imported herbs and refined by extractive methods worked out in the Kapex laboratories.

We urge you to accept this fair and square 30-day trial offer—you have nothing to lose for if you are not joyfully satisfied—just say, "I am not satisfied" and McBride's will return the purchase price.

NOTE THAT STEAM-LIKE SMOKE

Just look again at the illustration. Note the steam-like smoke going in one nostril and coming out of the other.

When you use Kapex you can see this healing vapor, as fine as smoke, coming from the nostrils—and it will come thru—no matter how stuffed up they are.

This is your big chance to try this wonderful discovery for 30 days. Remember McBride's 3 drug stores are sales agents for Kapex and stand back of every bottle—you cannot get it elsewhere.

The price of Kapex is only $1.00 a bottle which will last one person two months.

C. D. of A. Will Present Minstrel

Minstrel and Revue Will Be Staged
At St. Mary's School Hall Monday and Tuesday by Catholic Daughters.

The Catholic Daughters of America will present their Minstrel and Revue, promised to be replete with attractive entertaining features at St. Mary's Hall Monday and Tuesday evenings.

The entire cast composed of Catholic Daughters will present snappy song hits, pretty ballads, and dance numbers and a setting most attractive. Much time will be spent in preparing the stage of St. Mary's Hall for the Minstrel and Revue. All scenery will be entirely new. The Daughters have collected up-to-date jokes to intersperse the other attractions. Much time has been spent in procuring the jokes and practicing so that they will be put over in big time style—just as Al Johnson, Eddie Cantor or any of the headliners would present them. Two novelty skits will follow the musical program and will afford plenty of humor.

After the entertainment dancing will be held each evening.

The benefit of the Minstrel and Revue will be appropriated to the Building Fund of the organization. A most cordial welcome is extended to the public. Tickets may be obtained now from the members or at the door on the evenings the Minstrel will be presented.

The cast: Florence Bennett, Helen Burmeister, Jane Carroll, Mary Carroll, Marie Costello, Helen Elgo, Anna Gitty, Catherine Hogan, Sabyna Hawley, Sara Kenny, Marie Ketterer, Mary Kogel, Gertrude Krause, Jane Madden, Marguerite Madden, Elizabeth Moran, Mary Moran, Caroline Nave, Mary Neenan, Cecilia Pillsworth, Florence Rhinehart, Margaret

Shields, Mary Tucker, Marie Ulrich, Ethel Weber, Mary O'Mara, Agnes McNelis, Rita Ketterer, Mary Van Buren, Kathryn Carroll with Mrs. Kathryn Liscom as hostess.

PUNGBEESIE AND DUTCHES COUNTY RESULTS

John K. Sague, Democrat, was elected mayor of Poughkeepsie Tuesday over his Republican opponent, Edward J. MacLellan, by a plurality of 350 votes. Daniel M. Keyes, Democrat, was elected alderman-at-large over his Republican opponent, Frank G. Kearney, by a plurality of 525 votes. The common council of Poughkeepsie for the next two years will be composed of seven Republicans and seven Democrats with the latter having the advantage by Mr. Keyes' election as alderman-at-large. The Democrats gained two seats in the council. The Democrats gained one seat in the board of supervisors, the standing being changed from 22 Republicans and 9 Democrats to 21 Republicans and 10 Democrats.

In Dutchess county the Republican ticket was successful except in one instance. Assemblyman Howard N. Allen and John M. Hackett were re-elected by large pluralities while Supervisor Vernard J. Rockefeller was elected sheriff by more than 4,000. County Clerk Joseph A. Daughton, re-elected with a Democrat and Republican endorsement. Dr. E. Kingsland Johnson was re-elected coroner over Dr. Joseph E. Vigeant by approximately 6,500. Superintendent of the Poor Edward A. Cox was re-elected by a margin of almost 2,000 for his third term. County Treasurer Moses Lamont, Democrat, was re-elected over William Hummel, Republican, by a plurality of more than 1,000. Except for his election the Republicans carried Dutchess county easily.

Whitewash

Before putting the earth in the wind boxes paint the inside with whitewash. It will keep the box from rotting and prevent insects.

REPUBLICANS WON IN ORANGE AND NEWBURGH

The Republican candidates in Orange county and Newburgh Tuesday, were elected to all county and city offices. Elmer H. Lemon was re-elected district attorney; Charles Dusenberry, county clerk, and John D. McCook, sheriff. The Republicans won in both assembly districts of Orange county, re-electing Assemblyman D. C. Dominick in the First district and Alexander G. Hall in the Second. In the board of supervisors the Republicans succeeded in eliminating two Democratic supervisors, and the next board will contain 28 Republicans, 6 Democrats and 1 independent.

The Republicans were most successful in the city of Newburgh. James D. Tweed was unopposed for mayor and Alfred Nutt and Wygant D. Fowler were successful over their Democratic opponents for councilmen.

MIXED ELECTION RESULT IN GREENE COUNTY

After a hot fight the Democrats of Greene county elected a majority of supervisors, and the new board will be Democratic by 8 to 6. The Republicans swept the county and also the town of Catskill electing all county candidates with one exception, Conrad J. Hammer, Democrat, defeating James MacNee, Republican, for the office of assessor.

Floyd F. Jones, Republican, was re-elected county clerk; Ellis W. Bentley, Republican, was re-elected to the assembly; Milton O. Bailey, Republican, was elected sheriff, and William E. Brady, Republican, coroner; Henry W. Barker, Republican, was elected superintendent of the poor.

FRANCE LURES WOMAN SHOPPER

Does Yearly Business of $157,000,000 With American Women.

Washington.—Discussion of French and American tariffs raises two questions of popular interest: What does Uncle Sam buy at France's cotton counter, and what does France buy at America's general store?

"Given an unlimited checking account Uncle Sam could find for his masculine use few representative French products in an average large American city," says a bulletin from the Washington (D. C.) headquarters of the National Geographic society.

"But Madam Columbia—what a buying orgy she could have! In one year France does a $157,000,000 business, chiefly with American women."

"First, an American woman shopping with an unlimited checking account would pick out Paris gowns of the latest mode, Paris hats and Paris shoes, Paris gloves and Paris handkerchiefs. At the perfumery counter a fragrant fluid that may cost many dollars an ounce, face powder, rouge, lipstick and eyebrow pencil—all the thousand items of the commerce of vanity. At another counter she would purchase a French hand bag and at still another, French pearls."

"Check book in hand let her enter a delicatessen. What an array of French products awaits her there: French peas, French mushrooms, truffles, 'English' walnuts from Bordeaux, creamy Camembert cheese, smooth Gruyere cheese, green-veined Roquefort cheese, Brie cheese, Munster cheese from Haute Vosges, pate de sole gras from Strasbourg or Toulouse, sorbines from Brittany, French pickled vegetables of all kinds, French sirups, French mineral waters, Vichy and the like ($42,000 gallons in one year), narcissus and lily bulbs for table decoration, and garlic for seasoning from Tours."

"The shopper has not finished. Back at the yard goods department, the ribbon counter, the lace counter, the comb counter, the umbrella counter, and the thread and button counters she could spend and spend, buying the beautiful French creations, articles of the 'luxe' trade, as it is called in France."

Cotton Our Major French Export.

"The United States' exports to France, although double the value of imports, concentrate on a few products. To observe the products concealed behind the dollar sign of statistics it is necessary to visit New Orleans, the ports of Texas, Norfolk, Seattle, Chicago and New York. King Cotton reigns undisputed monarch of the American export trade to France, monopolizing almost one-half the total value which runs to $280,000,000. Texas sends petroleum products in addition to cotton; Montana, much copper; Chicago, wheat, lard and bacon; Seattle, condensed milk; New York, machinery, and Norfolk, two dissimilar fuels, coal and tobacco."

"The 124,000 dressmakers of Paris are not, curious to record, France's premier exporters to America. Paris has nothing to do with the republic's leading American-dollar catcher, the walnut. While the 'luxe' trade of Paris, apparel, perfumes, cosmetics and jewelry rolls up the largest collective total, the 'English' walnut, grown in southern France and exported from Bordeaux and Marseilles, individually leads the list with a value of $4,193,000 in one recent year. Six other leading exports to the United States, in order of their importance, are perfumery and cosmetics, unstringed pearls, silk-wearing apparel, cotton laces, gold and silver threads, braid, fabrics and laces, and leather gloves."

"Cargoes that leave Le Havre and Marseilles and Bordeaux wharfs today may be better packed in snug boxes than galleon cargoes of olden days, but their contents are no less worthy of some poet's praise. Beneath the decks trod by tourists home-coming from France, lie pungent crates: 93,000 pounds of geranium oil in one year, 18,917 pounds of attar of roses, 83,350 pounds of thyme, and 136,413 pounds of sweet lavender."

Skunk Skins and Lard.

"Economically the United States still remains a raw colonial country as far as France is concerned. The United States supplies the raw materials for skilled French craftsmen who sell them back to us as artistic creations. Raw cotton goes from Texas to the looms of France and then as lace and dress goods recrosses the Atlantic ocean to New York. Lard shipped from Chicago to the Riviera is used to extract flower essences for perfumes which later sell on Michigan boulevard. Skunk skins to the value of over a million dollars go to France annually from the United States and return as apparel in a mode."

"Only in the realm of machinery does the United States market with France on the scale of an advanced civilization. To weave American cotton France buys American textile machinery and her dressmakers use American sewing machines. Her clerks write on American typewriters, and her printers work often on American printing presses. Fourteen percent of France's imports come from the United States. We rank France thirteenth as an export market for American products and eighteenth as merchant of foreign goods sold in the United States."

STONE RIDGE.

Stone Ridge, Nov. 10.—Much interest is being taken in the community Gospel services as is evidenced by the large attendance. The meeting next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock will be in the Reformed Church, with the Rev. C. Van Tol in charge. "How Much will You Give For Your Life?" is the theme for the message to be delivered by the Rev. Jay Holmes Smith. The Union choir has prepared special music.

Services at the M. E. Church Sunday morning will be in charge of the pastor, the Rev. Jay Holmes Smith.

The subject of his sermon will be "How Can We Have Services of Refreshments?" The Sunday school will meet at 2:45 with Oscar Wood in charge.

The Builders' Class of the Methodist Church will hold a Virginia baked ham supper in the church. November 15, promptly at 5 o'clock. Everyone is invited to enjoy this supper.

The Parent-Teacher Association will hold a special meeting Friday night at 7:30 in the school. The speaker will be Principal Van Ingen of the Kingston High school. Special music will be rendered and be patriotic songs will be enjoyed by all. Refreshments will be served. A large attendance is requested.

The Home Bureau will hold its monthly meeting in the Public Library, November 17, at 2 p. m. Miss Dora Sonensday from Cornell will give a lesson on nutrition. Every member is asked to be there.

The Men's Bible Class of the Reformed Church wishes to extend hearty thanks to all those who so graciously helped in making their chicken supper so great a success. Voting was very brisk and competition very keen among the candidates throughout the entire town of Marbletown. The Christian Endeavor society of the Reformed Church has been postponed from Monday evening until Tuesday, November 22.

Congratulations of the many friends of Fred Davis and the other successful candidates in the recent election are being extended.

Fred Elmendorf left for Washington and points south Tuesday. Mrs. Elmendorf will leave the latter part of this week.

The regular Sunday service at the Reformed Church will be at 10:30 o'clock. The Bible school will meet at 11:45 o'clock under the leadership of L. D. Sahler. The lesson is "The Wonder City" is scheduled for "Hosea Preaches God's Love." at the Reformed Church November 13 at 8 o'clock. The lecture consists of 175 beautifully colored slides of the capitol at Washington, D. C.

There is a growing and will be given by the Rev. E. A. Schwitters of Newark, N. J. There will be no entrance charge, but an offering will be taken to defray the expense of getting the lecturer here. This is a splendid opportunity for those who have never seen the beautiful capitol of the nation, and an opportunity of reviewing those mental pictures for those who have been there.

A travelogue lecture "Washington—there."

Dr. Luther Emerick, the well-known Sanzerles physician, has gone the Rev. Robert A. Greenwell of Middletown one better as an agriculturalist. The Rev. Mr. Greenwell on November 1 picked some sweet corn from his garden and served it at a dinner given some friends. Dr. Emerick on November 5 had some corn picked from his farm at Esopus which he had for dinner the same day. The Rev. Mr. Greenwell is a former pastor of the Clinton Avenue M. E. Church.

Get Your License Plates Early

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 11.—Beginning Monday, November 14, the offices of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles and county clerks will issue the new black and orange number plates which will be displayed on the 2,250,000 or more motor vehicles in this state during 1928. By this arrangement automobile owners will be given seven weeks within which their cars may be re-registered for the next year. The time allowed is ample to meet the convenience of automobile owners who desire to secure the new plates without confusion or delay.

Applications for renewal of registration must be accompanied by the stub detached from the 1927 registration certificate together with the registration fee. Under an amendment to the law proof of ownership of all cars will be required before registration certificates shall be issued. If the application for renewal of registration for 1928 is made before December 27, the renewal stub of the 1927 certificate or a duplicate, if one was issued, must be submitted. If application is made on or after December 27 and the stub is lost a bill of sale may be accepted as proof of ownership. If the car is new and has never been registered a certificate of purchase or a bill of sale must accompany the application.

TO HELP IN TROUBLE

To The Editor of The Freeman, Sir:

The annual roll call for new and renewal in membership in our county Red Cross organization is now on. While we all admit it to be a most worthy cause, we do not all realize how it applies and works locally. There are many destitute people, families of soldiers and otherwise, being cared for all the time by the local Red Cross. Recently a sick lady, without funds, appealed to our county Red Cross to help her locate her brother in a stricken town in Vermont, where the recent flood was severe and many lives had been lost. The secretary at once telegraphed the Red Cross in this stricken Vermont town, to look up this man and report back.

And then it ought not to need a great calamity to convince us of the need of supporting the Red Cross, and so while we are responsive to calls for help and relief work in other parts of the country, they likewise stand ready to help us if ever in dire need. There are dangers always lurking in the very air itself. As several of our high school girls have expressed their willingness to call upon you for your subscriptions for the cause whether for dollar membership or more, we trust that the general public will stand ready to welcome these young ladies to their homes as they solicit for this worthy cause.

The home economics committee of Lake Katrine Grange will serve a chicken dinner at the hall Wednesday evening, November 16. Mrs. Frank Brink, chairman, assisted by Mrs. L. Shaw, Mrs. R. Everett, Mrs. William Sears, Mrs. Catherine Ross, Mrs. H. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. John Bedenick, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Sabler, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kukuk and Wesley Parrish. The following is the menu: Fricassee chicken, mashed white and sweet potatoes, creamed onions, celery, cranberries, cabbage salad, apple and pumpkin pie, rolls and coffee. As this will be the first dinner served for the benefit of the Grange in some time, the ladies are anxious to make it a success. They extend a cordial invitation to their friends in Kingston, Lake Katrine and vicinity.

AFTER PERIOD OF TORTURE, MAN FINDS
RELIEF FROM ITCHING

Skin now entirely healed
Charlestown (Boston), Mass., Dec. 18.—"Last June I had an itching irritation on my back, principally between the shoulders, and also on the back of my hands, extending to the shoulders. The skin was apparently clear of any disorder, but the itching was intense. After a vigorous rubbing with a Turkish towel there would appear two spots, about an inch apart, which bled from the effects of the rubbing. I used Bay Rum and other lotions before I tried your Resinol Ointment. At bedtime my back received a thorough washing with Resinol Soap and a very generous application of Ointment, after which I would rest quite comfortably until about two or three in the morning, when I received another application. A third upon arising would be enough to make me feel at ease during the day. Thanks to the above treatment, the trouble is now entirely healed." (Signed) John John W. Matthews, 1 Crystal Place.

at Annual Meeting of Farm Bureau Federation—Gos. Tax, G. L. F. and Municipal. Thieves' Massive Attack.Syracuse, Nov. 11.—Delegates from county farm bureaus are here attending the 12th annual meeting of the New York State Farm Bureau Federation. Special preliminary conferences on tariff matters, vigilance service, marketing, conservation, and foreignty were held Wednesday.The first session of the annual meeting proper was called to order
Thursday morning by President C. R.
White of Ithaca, N. Y. He spoke of the strong position in which the Farm Bureau is today, and urged the importance of spreading the spirit of organization still further among farmers. "Agriculture has problems today involving millions of dollars for farmers", he said. "It is important that these questions be faced and met by farmers solidly". He pointed out the importance to farmers of the proposed gas tax for this state. "We insist that a just share of the revenue derived from such a tax shall go back to the counties on the basis of total highway mileage to relieve the heavy burden of rural taxpayers. Support of roads is costing farmers 54.66 per cent of their taxes, while only 4.77 per cent of city taxes go for this purpose."G. L. F. Flourishing.
Representatives of the various farmers' cooperatives in the state were present and outlined the work of their organizations. H. E. Dabcock, general manager of the Cooperative G. L. F. Exchange, headquarters at Ithaca, N. Y., stated that the G. L. F.
now has the largest dairy feed operation in the world. Its estimated dairy feed tonnage during this month and next will run to 40,000 tons. Mr.
Dabcock pointed out the tremendous growth in the company during the seven years since its organization, stating that its entire tonnage during an early year was only 37,000 tons.
Equal strides have been made in its other departments, seed, fertilizer, poultry feed, and mail order service.
He reported the company to be on a sound financial basis, with a surplus this year of $250,000 above all costs and after paying a six per cent dividend to G. L. F. shareholders.
J. J. Roberts of the Producers Livestock Commission at Buffalo pointed out the advantages to New York farmers in having the Buffalo mar-

Capt. A. B. Moore, inspector division of State Police, spoke of the great reduction in cases of petty thievery of farm property due to the Vigilance Service established in 1926
by the Farm Bureau Federation. Use of this service is open to members of Farm Bureaus who post their property with reward signs designed by the State Federation and sold for 10 cents apiece. Capt. Moore said he believed these signs to be the most important factor in cutting down thefts of motorists. In cases where convictions did not take place, Capt. Moore said it was because farmers had not reported the theft soon enough, or had failed to get sufficient evidence against the thief. He urged farmers to cooperate with the police by reporting thefts at once.Capt. Moore also recommended that a week be set aside for "Farm Vigilance Week", during which all publicity possible be given to the work of the service through the press and through the various clubs, hostels, Kiwanis, Lions, and others; also, that Farm Bureau members be required to post their property with the vigilance service signs during this time.The milk marketing and production situation were one of the important topics discussed. Prof. H. A. Ross of the College of Agriculture, Cornell University, and George Pitts, of the Dairyman's League, were the main speakers.
The corn borer situation is another important farm problem on the program and was discussed by L. R.
Simons of the same College of Agriculture.Enthusiasm at Parish Meeting.
While the parish meeting called by St. John's rector, the Rev. William Poyntell Kemper, for Thursday evening at the parish house was not as largely attended as could have been hoped for, it was an enthusiastic meeting, presided over by the rector. The needs of the church for real growth and development of Christian life in the community were shown and ways and means for meeting such needs were discussed, including both personnel and financing. There was considerable discussion from the floor which will result in several suggestions to be taken back to the Church Council, composed of the vestry and chairmen of the various church organizations.
Definite announcement was made of the date of the Every-Member Canvas, Sunday, November 27. This year it will be the ambition of that canvas to secure even the smallest weekly support from every man, woman and boy and girl coming to are discarding skirts and petticoats as cumbersome and impracticable.

They have petitioned the police for governmental authority to wear trousers and other masculine garb.The most of the petitioners are industrial workers, who believe the male costume will enable them to perform their work more easily.But not a few are smart society women, who, tired of the tyranny of the skirt and petticoat, want to differentiate themselves from their sisters who are still "slaves" to fashion.Fearing if they wore male attire without official authority they might be molested in the streets, the petitioners sought printed license cards from the authorities. But the government declined their request, saying there was no need of legalizing something which was not forbidden.It was even pointed out that men are free to wear skirts and petticoats.
But if such a thing caused a public scandal it would be forbidden. So far no Austrian men have essayed this innovation.But girls up to fifteen years of age in Austria now wear boy's "pants," socks and masculine shirts.Picture hats, togues, turbans and

Pledge Support for Near East Orphans

Local Churches Have Agreed To Be Responsible for Support of 32 Orphans at $60 Each Per Year—Seek Support for 18 More.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Kingston Ministerial Association held at the Clinton Avenue M. E. Church reports were received from several of the churches of Kingston through their respective ministers as to the action and progress being made toward providing funds for the care and support of 59 orphans in Near East Relief Orphanages at a cost of $60 for each orphan, or a total community responsibility of $3,600. The following definite assurance of support were given:

The Rev. Lucas Boere, D. D., reported that the First Dutch Reformed Church had already raised sufficient funds to take care of at least nine children for one year.

The Rev. Frank B. Seeley, D. D., stated that the Fair Street Reformed Church would be responsible for at least seven children for one year.

The Rev. J. Wilbur Tetley, pastor of St. James Methodist Episcopal Church, reported that the congregation of his church had responded by providing funds more than sufficient to take care of five orphans for one year, in some instances through different classes and organizations of his church.

The Rev. Arthur S. Cole, pastor of the First Baptist Church, informed the meeting that his church would be responsible for at least five children for one year.

The Rev. William P. Kemper, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, gave assurance of support for at least three children.

The Rev. John B. Steketee is endeavoring to raise funds for the care of two children.

The Rev. Putnam Cady, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, advised the meeting that one of the organizations of his church had informed him that they desired to take care of one of these children for a year and that he hoped for further favorable action by the members of his church session. It must be remembered and appreciated that the members of this church have already rendered extensive and valuable assistance to one of the children's relief institutions conducted in the Near East, and has done so for a number of years past.

The Rev. G. L. Withers, pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, informed the meeting that the official board of his church had taken favorable action and had extended the courtesy of a presentation of the Near East Relief cause by a speaker to the members of the congregation and Sunday school in the near future when it is hoped that a very gratifying number of additional children will be provided for.

The Rev. Charles G. Ellis, D. D., pastor of the Roundout Presbyterian Church, reported that the session of his church had taken favorable action and had appointed a committee to handle the matter and that they were sending out letters to the members of the congregation and it is hoped that provision will be made for the care of several additional children.

Many of the remaining churches have not yet taken definite action so that their representatives are unable to indicate specific commitments or accept a definite number of children.

The definite reports received to date assure care and support to at least thirty-two orphans leaving a balance of eighteen children still to be provided for, the responsibility for whom it is hoped will be speedily assumed by individuals, classes, church societies, or by civic and fraternal organizations.

The Rev. Frank B. Seeley, D. D., should be advised as funds or pledges for the care of additional children are undertaken or realized.

Churches and organizations or societies will collect their own funds and pledges and transmit same through their own financial secretaries or treasurers to D. N. Matthews, State of New York National Bank, who has kindly consented to be the local treasurer for the city of Kingston in regard to funds and pledges for the Near East Relief.

Five dollars a month or $60 a year supports a child.

If you find it hard to forgive someone who has wronged you, take a walk through the cemetery.

ARMORED SKELETON FOUND IN COLORADO

Believed to Be Officer of Coronado's Expedition.

Fort Morgan, Colo.—A skeleton believed to be a Spanish officer of Coronado's expedition because of the kind of armor in which it was encased, was recently unearthed near La Junta, Colo., by M. O. Davis and Earl Searlett, who were digging and searching for Indian relics.

The skeleton was found in a sitting position, with knees up against the chest, the way Indians buried their dead, but by the armor around the skeleton it is believed it was a Spanish officer.

The skeleton may have been identified with Coronado's expedition or he may have been an officer in Villazur's expedition in 1570, which was completely annihilated by the Indians.

With the skeleton were found parts of a lance, the barrel of a gun, ivory equestria, a number of blue and white beads, and an old-time bullet ball with a hole through the center for stringing on a string.

The site where the skeleton was found was a debated ground in the conflicts between France and Spain.

The land in southern Colorado was the scene of many battles after the coming of Coronado's expedition in 1540 and his attempt to civilize New Mexico resulted in the migration of the Indians into southern Colorado.

Spanish officers were often assigned to round up these runaway Indians, and it is possible that the Spanish officers whose skeleton was discovered was one sent on such a mission, and that he was killed in service.

Wires Like Spider Webs

Overhead telephone wires are not strung along the streets or alleys in Brussels, but from steel towers taller than the highest houses, located at regular points, from which the wires radiate out and down in all directions like great spider webs. The system covers the city without relationship to the street and alley plan. It is possible in Brussels where it would not be in the United States, because zoning limits the height of buildings.

Hogs Must Be Vaccinated to Live in Pennsylvania

Harrisburg, Pa.—An hog shipped into Pennsylvania in the future, except those which are of the immediate slaughter, must be vaccinated against cholera under an order of the Pennsylvania department of agriculture. The new rule, by which it is hoped hog cholera will be banished from the state, also provides that any swine which have been in the possession of a dealer or farmer for less than 30 days and are offered at either auction or private sale must be vaccinated.

Icelander Swims Twelve Miles in Arctic Ocean

Oslo—Swimming the English channel is more play to the feet of a young Icelandic, Erlingur Pálsson, a constable of Reykjavik, who swam 12 miles in the Arctic ocean with the water at a temperature of 32.8—barely above the freezing point. He wore three bathing suits.

It is 60 years since this swim from the island of Oranese, in the Sargasso, to the mainland has been accomplished and that was by the legendary outlaw, Grœttir. Until Pálsson swam the distance nobody believed the legend, for it was regarded as impossible for a human being to endure the freezing water for the four and one-half hours necessary to cover the 12 miles.

Soviet Seeks Assistance Here

New York, Nov. 11 (AP).—The New York Times says today it has learned from reliable Wall Street sources that Soviet government representatives have approached American bankers within the last few weeks asking assistance to ameliorate the Russian financial situation.

The Russian representatives, the paper says, have been so far unsuccessful but are expected to resume negotiations for a loan within the next month or so.

Charles E. Mitchell, president of the National City Bank, was met by Soviet agents in Paris, the Times asserts, but nothing came of the conversations and Mr. Mitchell knew of no plans for a possible Russian loan in this market.

Highest Authority for Borrowing by Writers

One reads for thought and for quotation not less; if he find his thought more finely conceived and aptly expressed by another, let him quote without hesitation or apology. He has the highest authority for the practice. How rich is Montaigne's page, Montaigne's Bacon's! And what they borrow is of a piece with their own text, giving it added strength and grace. I know the fashion of our time affects disdain of borrowing. But who is rich enough to refuse, or plead honorably for his exclusiveness? Somehow the printer happens to forget his quotation marks, and the credit of originality goes to the writer none the less.

The plea is that quoting often implies sterility and bad taste. Then Shakespeare and his contemporaries were wanting in wit and fine rhetoric. Hear how Montaigne justifies his practice:

"Let nobody insist upon the matter I write, but my method in writing. Let them observe in what I borrow, if I have known how to choose what is proper to raise or relieve invention, which is always my own; for I make others say for me what, either for want of language or want of sense. I cannot myself well express. I do not number my borrowings, I weigh them. And had I designed to raise their estimate by their number, I had made twice as many."—Bronson Alcott.

Lucky Animals

Animal mascots become ever more and more popular. Dancers are wearing little black pigs in effigy. The fisherman's mascot is the petrel, the omen of good weather. The black cat is almost universally considered lucky, but this is specially so with actors and actresses. Many of "the profession" would not dream of playing a first night through without a small black cat charm of some sort. The airman's mascot is the eagle, and a gardener will often keep for luck a charm in the form of a toad. People with gray eyes should always choose a monkey mascot. Brown eyes will find the horse a lucky animal, and blue eyes should wear a little bear charm. A quaint colored butterfly is the best luck-bringer for green-eyed people. It is unlucky for fair-haired people to wear any mascot in the form of a snake, and a mouse charm will only bring bad luck to anyone who is rash enough to wear it.

Barla, Wis.—It was a great day for "Hungry Hank," who was a big attraction at the Junior Agricultural fair held here recently. "Hungry Hank" is a monster with a big appetite, from the farm of E. M. Fitzpatrick, south of Barla. "Hank" was the center of a wide growing contest. A prize was offered to the man, woman or child who could guess the exact number of kernels of corn that the bird would eat in a given time. Mrs. Archie Davis and Mrs. William Sumner tied for first place with guesses of 250 kernels. "Hank" got away with exactly 250 of the dainty morsels. Second prize went to Mrs. Reuben Peterson with a guess of 247 kernels. Two judges stood by and counted while "Hungry Hank" feasted.

Here is REAL A. C. Operation!

REAL ALL-Electric operation means no batteries, no chargers, no eliminators. REAL ALL-Electric sets use the marvelous new CX-320 or UX-220 tubes—operating direct from your light socket at a cost of less than 1c per hour. REAL ALL-Electric sets require no thought or care—no battery replacements or frequent supplies of distilled water.

Yet, hundreds of radio buyers today are having these facts misrepresented... having ALMOST electric sets sold them as ALL-Electric. ALMOST electric sets are the old-fashioned vacuum tube sets with tricky, troublesome eliminators and chargers hidden within their cabinets. These sets use CX-301A or UX-201A tubes.

Another, and better way, is to buy a Zenith. For not only are you assured that Zenith is a real ALL-Electric... you know too that it is the finest radio money can buy—the world's champion long distance radio receiver... and equally a champion in every other desirable radio characteristic.

For Battery Operation—$180. Complete Electrical—$225 (tubes extra).

16 Models—3 different circuits—6, 8 and 10 Tubes—Loop, antenna or antennaless. Battery or Electric—$100 to $2500.

Mrs. Young Talks On Home Bureau

State Federation of Home Bureaus' President Says Women Must Unite With Farm Bureau in Supporting Legislation That Will Promote Their Interests.

"As an industry agriculture must be levelled up to the efficiency of urban industry. The machinery to effect this is chiefly the concern of the state. As a business, agriculture must also be made efficient by voluntary effort among the farmers. Lastly rural life must be socially and intellectually improved." These words of Sir Horace Plunkett, who gave a life of devotion to the Irish people and their agricultural problems, were quoted by Mrs. Edward Young, president of the State Federation of Home Bureaus, in her annual message to the eighth annual meeting of the organization, held in Syracuse this week.

This may well apply here, she believes, as in America farmers are best helped when they help themselves. "We must unite with the Farm Bureau in supporting legislation that will promote our interests. We must learn of the problems of state that affect our well being and be able to vote intelligently on the leading questions of the day. The central district has made a good start on this, having adopted a civics program which deals with local government, local history, and schools, which we highly recommend to the other districts.

"As a Home Bureau Federation we have held our membership. But we have not had the privilege of welcoming any of the four counties now having organizing committees, and others who are hoping to organize, but hope this winter they may win the appropriations needed."

Bureau Has 24,531 Members. Every county has paid its membership dues for 1927. The membership in the state on October 1, 1927, was 24,531. Of this number 19,865 were farmwomen, and 3,666 were city members. There are 3,596 local leaders in the state.

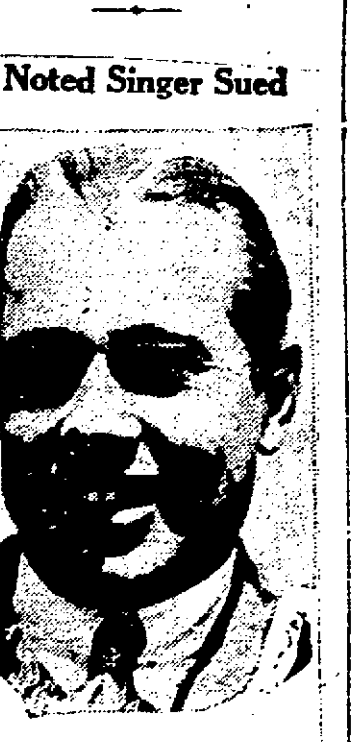

Mrs. Young urged the need of more appropriations for the College of Home Economics, saying that for years it has been unable to meet the demands made upon it for lack of space and means. No short courses can be allowed, and the overcrowded condition hampers efficiency.

"No educational program in the state can give better or more tangible results than the work of this college," she said, in referring to its service to society as prevention rather than cure for the ills that result in large appropriations for care of the sick, criminal and other dependent classes. "To promote the extension service will lessen the ever increasing need for housing and care of the feeble and criminal."

Odd Foods in Many Lands

Crocodile meat is considered a good food by natives of Africa, and southern negroes relish the tails of alligators, according to Popular Mechanics Magazine. In the West Indies fish eyes are regarded as a delicacy. Jellyfish are eaten in Japan and in many places of the world, squid and octopus are valued for food. In Polynesia a sea worm, the "haiolo," which averages about 16 inches when fully grown, is caught and prepared into an appetizing stew. Sentiment is against snakes, but they are eaten in some places and travelers testify that they are often very tasty. Hawks, herons and parrots are commonly killed for food in parts of the tropics.

Eleanor Gunn on Fashions

Although the sheer black evening gown is the wisest and perhaps the best choice, all-white and dark or street colors are having a vogue.

New York—One of the arresting features of the season is the adoption of street colors for evening wear. It is not unusual to find black, gray, sand and even browner tones among the evening shades; nor are blues omitted, that is, blues of the darker type. Then there is the new caribbean red, really a garnet tone, and looking all the world like a garnet when interpreted in an all-over headed dress.

Some authorities give it as their opinion that a tendency toward more sober colors is being evidenced. It would so appear, with gray regarded as a sports color par excellence, and the colors mentioned being worn for evening. No matter where one happens to be, there one sees a wealth of black gowns ranging from velvet to chiffon, not omitting crepe satin, of course, for that is omnipresent. It is still apparent in the circles frequented by the elect that white remains important. One is struck by the number of street tones abroad by night, possibly because of the background of white and black that offsets them.

French women are very partial to the combination of black and beige, and of black and gray. For that matter, black and blue, black and brown, black and white, and black with flesh all meet with Parisian approval, while black alone is frequently the French woman's preference. Of course, she will go in for color, if color is required of her. The sheer black evening dress is still the best bet for the woman with a limited wardrobe.

Stupendous but Useless

Sixty centuries ago a stupendous stone structure was built covering the equivalent of 16 city blocks, or about 13 acres. It stretched its pointed apex nearly 500 feet heavenward, and has stood through all times as a monument to the man who reared it as a colossal mausoleum to house his kingly bones.

One hundred thousand men, says the record, toiled under the scorching sun of Egypt for 30 years to build that structure. Ninety million cubic feet of stone piled one upon another combined to form the Great Pyramid of Cheops. It was a thousand years old when Moses led the children out of Israel through the Red sea.

FOOD FOR THE FAMILY

A ripe olive yields twice as many calories, or heat units, as the green olive, and is nearly equivalent to bread as food which we consider the staff of life. One has to cultivate the taste for the ripe olive; it is little coming better known, but is still little used in the greater part of the United States.

Of course the ripe olive is more easily digested than the green, as well as being richer in food value. Ripe olives are especially good because of their delicate flavor in meat sauces, dressings and made dishes.

A half dozen ripe olives finely minced added to a giblet sauce to serve with roast turkey or chicken is especially fine.

Olive Salad.—Take four tart apples, one small bunch of celery, one-half cupful of walnut meats, and three-fourths of a cupful of pitted olives, ripe. Cut the celery, apples and olives into thin strips, add the nuts and mayonnaise dressing and serve in a nest of lettuce.

Hawaiian Salad.—Place a slice of pineapple on a leaf of lettuce. On it arrange alternate sections of orange and grapefruit, carefully stripped of all connecting tissue. Between each piece of the fruit place a one-eighth section of ripe olive. In the center of the pineapple place a ball of cream cheese seasoned with mayonnaise. Sprinkle with paprika and serve with French dressing. The pineapple juice, as well as the grapefruit juice may be used instead of lemon juice or vinegar.

Olive Sauce.—Melt four tablespoonfuls of butter and add a teaspoonful of chopped chives and cook until well blended and softened. Remove the chives, add five tablespoonfuls of flour, one-half teaspoonful of salt and a few dashes of pepper; add two cupfuls of brown stock and cook until thick. Cut one dozen olives from the pits, drain and add to the sauce. Serve with game or meat.

Not Realist

"Had a good lecture on Alaska, didn't we, Nellie?" asked one of Mr. Gordon's neighbors, meeting him the next morning. "To sit there by the radio parcel as for two hours hearing him read off the information was a grand rest for me, beat out with cramping as I be."

"It was a good enough talk," admitted Mr. Gordon, grudgingly, "but I didn't rest me any to speak of. Having to sit stock-still without a chance to get in a word for two mortal hours, I was pretty well worn out afterward. But I took the lantern out in the wood shed, and by the time I'd split up a week's kindling, I felt kind of rested and calmed down."—Kansas City Star.

Nothing Doing After That

She was about to marry Mr. Moneybags, and it was a case of May and December. The man was old and rich, and she was young and fair. A party was given to celebrate the betrothal, and one of the guests was requested by the hostess to oblige with a song.

"Yes, do sing, Mr. Sweetnote," remarked the prospective bride. "Do you happen to remember 'My Sweetheart When a Boy'?"

"Great Scott!" exclaimed the vocalist. "Remember him! You must take me for a centenarian!"

He was not invited to the wedding.

Worry Over Spelling

Of course "enough" spells "nut" and yet "call" is not spelled "caugh." Schoolboys, seasoned business men, not to mention school teachers, often find the spelling of the English language a bit troublesome. But here is a one-time university professor and now eminent scientist who not only admits that spelling "gets him rattled," but goes so far as to invent his own form of spelling, which exactly follows out the sound of the word.

Hence we find such sentences as these in a recently issued volume by the anthropological department of a university museum:

"His bald wuz still black."
"The two rattings when they wer dos, ov course wer not alike."
"Some paragrafs ov his own wer dropt."

"I say as nearly as possible becauz—"

The author of the volume, which is the translation of a legend of the Kechi Indians of Guatemala, is Robert Barlett, an Englishman.

The beauty killer

HERE, it strikes a beautiful woman—and in a few years her charm will have fled. Here, it grips a promising man—soon he will sink, with blighted prospects, into obscurity.

What a deadly affliction constipation is! Thief of youth. Robber of strength. Evil forerunner of disease and misery! It destroys health! It kills beauty!

What a blessing that there is relief from this dreadful scourge! Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to relieve constipation—promptly.

Why ALL-BRAN alone is effective

ALL-BRAN has "bulk." This bulk absorbs moisture and carries it through the intestines, gently distending them—cleansing, eliminating poisonous wastes. How different from part-bran products which contain so little bulk that there is hardly enough to have any effect at all. That is why doctors recommend ALL-BRAN. Because ALL-BRAN is 100% bran.

Different from habit-forming drugs

And contrast ALL-BRAN with dangerous drugs and pills—which become useless unless the dose is constantly increased. ALL-BRAN is delicious with milk or cream—and add fruits or honey. Let it take a few moments to bring out all its nut-like flavor. Serve it with other cereals. In soups. Recipes on every package.

Don't risk a part-bran substitute. Insist on genuine Kellogg's—the original ALL-BRAN. Sold by all grocers. Served at hotels, restaurants and cafeterias. On orders. Made by the Kellogg Company in Battle Creek, Mich. Write for free "Treatise on Constipation."

THIN OZONE THREAD JUST MISSES ENDANGERING LIFE

One Scientist Forecasts End of Unknown. According to Smithsonian Report.

Washington.—A slender thread of ozone in the upper atmosphere just misses endangering human health, according to Dr. C. G. Abbot, acting secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, in its eighty-first annual report, for 1926.

"With the higher plants," writes Doctor Abbot, "it must be sunshine or death. With man and the higher animals, it must be sunshine or sickness."

The value of sun rays as a cure for rickets is now well known, he says, and the particular rays which have this curative property seem to be a very narrow region in the ultraviolet.

"It is astonishing to remember," continues Doctor Abbot, "that this very group of rays, thus proved so indispensable to the development of growing creatures, just misses being cut off from sun rays by the trace of ozone which exists in our upper atmosphere."

These views are given by Doctor Abbot in one of two articles by him included in 31 papers which form the report. Subjects as diverse as evolution of the stars and the importance of parasites in control of insects are covered.

J. H. Jeans, English mathematician and astronomer, discusses the new outlook in cosmogony, saying that "a number of considerations combine to show that the universe is finite."

Doctor Jeans is inclined to bound the universe by the Andromeda Nebula and the Star Cloud 6822, at respective distances of 950,000 and 1,000,000 light years from the earth.

"From the sun's known rate of radiation it is found that its mass must be diminishing at the rate of about 250,000,000 tons a minute," he writes. "At the present rate of radiation, the total mass of the sun would provide radiation for fifteen million years."

The cause of earthquakes, particularly in the eastern United States, is treated by Dr. William H. Hobbs. Geologists generally believe, he says, that such changes in the earth's surface are caused by "the continuous loss into surrounding space of the heat from the earth's interior portions."

"This loss of heat," he continues, "is caused by a reduction of volume, a shrinking of the interior core of the earth, and the outer shell of rock being already cooled to a relatively stable condition must wrinkle as it adjusts itself."

Life Span to Continue to Grow, Says Doctor

Washington.—The world is becoming healthier and the span of life will continue to increase, in the opinion of Dr. Mart F. Boyd of the Rockefeller Medical Institute of New York.

Doctor Boyd, who has written a thesis on preventive medicine for the annual report of the Smithsonian Institution, forecasts a world offensive on disease.

"There will first be a gradual diminution of the total death rate, due to the gradual disappearance of the preventable diseases as causes of mortality," he predicted.

"A change in the age distribution of deaths will next be apparent."

Doctor Boyd said that individuals, under improved conditions, will have a better chance of a "normal duration" of life.

He also forecasts that unhealthy regions of the earth will be made habitable, relieving overcrowding, and "more of the earth's treasures will be made available for mankind."

"The economic productiveness of the individual as well as of the race will be increased and as a consequence individual and national wealth will increase and poverty and want diminish," he continued.

"The supply of animal foods will increase."

"Lastly, we may prophesy an improvement in the general physical condition of the race."

Only Child Makes Best Playground Head

Memphis, Tenn.—The young man or woman who has been brought up in a large family is not so likely to be successful in directing children on a playground as one who is the only child of a family or has only one brother or sister. This was reported before the National Recreation congress by Floyd Rowe, in charge of recreation in schools of Cleveland.

Studies made to find out what types of applicants make the best playground leaders, he said, show that high school or college athletic coaches are not promising candidates because they are accustomed to working for skill in sports, and this is not so important on the playground as keeping a large number of contestants active and interested. The investigators also have shown that workers who make unusually high ratings on the Terman psychological test are not, as a rule, successful because they have less patience with children who are slow to grasp directions.

Girls between eighteen and twenty-three years old, and men between twenty-one and twenty-five are at the best age for playground work, Mr. Rowe said.

Mrs. Milla Gade Corson, the first mother to successfully swim the English Channel, will be the headliner at the Broadway Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. She will appear in a diving act with two other girls and a man, and from advance reports received here the act is said to be clever. Mrs. Corson will also relate her experiences in swimming the channel. The act will be given in conjunction with usual good program at the theatre. The vaudeville and picture now being shown at the theatre is proving one of the best programs given.

Canada Observes Armistice Day

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 11 (P).—Canada today joined with the rest of the world in remembering Armistice Day. Throughout the Dominion solemn ceremonies of praise and thanksgiving were carried out, some in shrines dedicated to the memory of the war dead, others in front of cenotaphs.

Canadians everywhere interrupted their labors at 11 o'clock and for two minutes stood in silence, a tribute of remembrance to this nation's 60,000 war dead and to those who still carry with them the marks and scars of service.

Nine years ago today saw Canadian soldiers fighting the last battle of the war, delivering the Belgian city of Mons from the grasp of the German army, but one hour before mid-day hostilities on four hundred miles of front.

Got Names From Towns

Many dairy dishes popular in England are named after the towns which first produced them. Among them are Leamington cakes, Dundee cakes, Bath buns, Banbury cakes, Edinburgh rock, and Aylesbury ducks. Maids of Honor came originally from Richmond, Surrey, and are said to have been given their name by Anne Boleyn.

Canal Plans

Head of New York State Waterways Association Attacks Secretary Hoover's St. Lawrence River Canal Plans.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Nov. 11 (AP)—Attorney General Hoover's plan for the canalization of the St. Lawrence river as visionary and wholly unworkable from a navigation standpoint, and as a deceptive proposition, the estimates on which cannot be substantiated in actual practice as regards power and question the right of either the United States or the Dominion of Canada to take more water from the natural channel than is necessary for actual navigational needs, Henry W. Hill, president of the New York State Waterways Association, at the opening of the 15th annual meeting here today, urged the association to fight vigorously against United States participation in the project.

The former senator urged the association to continue its campaign so

New York state may be saved from the "canalization" of the waters of the St. Lawrence river, according to the plan of the United States government, declared today, Henry W. Judge Hits 93,000 Laws in Year as U. S. Craze

MADISON, Wis.—America has gone crazy on lawmaking, declared Judge Robert S. Hall in his address to the grand jury at the opening of the Forest County (Mississippi) Circuit court at Madison today.

"There are at present 150,000 laws in the United States, of which 93,000 were passed in the last year," stated the judge. The reason for the enactment of so many laws is attributed by the judge to the fact that 75 per cent of the people do not want them enforced.

AWARDED $250 AGAINST THE PENNSYLVANIA

Binghamton, N. Y., Nov. 11 (AP).—
Alfred S. Rosenfeld, 61, a travelling man, was arrested as a Pennsylvania Railroad train reached Harrisburg for failure to pay his railroad fare going from Youngstown, Ohio, to Pittsburgh. Subsequently he sued the Pennsylvania railroad for $25,000 and in Supreme court yesterday was awarded a verdict of $250.

A Generation

A generation is a single succession in natural descent, the children of the same parents; in years three generations are accounted to make a century.

The term generation is also applied to the whole body of persons of the same period or living at the same time, as the present generation. The term is sometimes used with reference to the average lifetime of all persons or synchronous age. The historical average, or that of all persons who pass the stage of infancy, is commonly reckoned at about thirty years, while the physiological average, or that of all who are born, is only about seventeen years.

Sentimental Folio

Financial and Commercial

New York Nov. 11 (AP)—The market in today's stock market was followed by a period of strength in which several of the market leaders and volume leaders reached new peaks. Wall Street sentiment generally was bullish, and the market closed at a high level.

Warren Brothers, which sold as low as 65 earlier in the year, continued its sensational gain by touching a new peak of 175 1/2. Woodworth advanced four points to within a small fraction of its record high of 1927. American Can common and preferred and International Paper preferred also reached new high ground.

Southern Railway attained a new top for all time at 139 1/2, and Canadian Pacific moved up 2 points, but the other rails were a bit sluggish. Uncertainty regarding the extent of the flood damage sustained by the Boston and Albany, one of New York Central's subsidiaries, has had a temporarily depressing effect on that issue.

Quotations given by Parker McElroy & Co., members N. Y. Stock Exchange, 120 Broadway, New York City, branch office, 260 Fair street.

Society Notes

Mrs. Frances Gerow Randall of New York and Augustus Randall of Kingston were married October 22 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Fowler, near Mottville. The bride was Miss Dorothy Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fowler. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Fowler. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harry Christians, pastor of the church and a brother of the bride. They were attended by Miss Ruth Anderson of New York City and Claude Burger, a brother of the groom. After an extended wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Burger will reside in a newly furnished home in Kingston.

Burglar-Christians.

Miss Dorothy Christians and Clifford Burger of Kingston were married on November 7 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Christians, pastor of the church at Kingston. The bride was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Christians, and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Fowler. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harry Christians, pastor of the church and a brother of the bride. They were attended by Miss Ruth Anderson of New York City and Claude Burger, a brother of the groom. After an extended wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Burger will reside in a newly furnished home in Kingston.

Mackey-Geary.

On Saturday, November 5, Miss Lillian Geary, oldest daughter of Mrs. Jennie Geary, of Wawarsing, and Oscar Mackey, of Accord, were united in marriage at the M. E. parsonage at Stone Ridge by the Rev. J. H. Smith. They were attended by Kenneth and Marion Geary, brother and sister of the bride. After a wedding supper at the Governor Clinton Hotel in this city, Mr. and Mrs. Mackey left for an auto trip to Albany and other northern points.

College Women's Club.

The College Women's Club met Tuesday evening, November 8, at the home of the Misses Mauserstock, 193 Hone street. Miss Laura Bailey acted as hostess. Dr. Bernard Eddings Bell, president of St. Stephen's College, gave a very interesting and stimulating address on "Some Educational Fallacies." Then followed a lively informal discussion.

While refreshments were served. A delightful surprise for her many friends was a solo rendered by Mrs. George Lockwood, former well-known musician of Kingston.

A Variety Show.

A variety show was held at the home of Mrs. Katherine Burns, 19 West Pierpont street, Sunday night. In honor of her approaching marriage to Andrew Petrofski of this city. It was planned by Miss Minnie Gallop of the same address who had the home of Mrs. Burns home very prettily decorated. There were a goodly number at the show who enjoyed Mrs. Burns with beautiful and useful gifts. Refreshments were served which were enjoyed by all. One of the features of the party was a solo rendered by Frances Petrofski, sister of the intended bridegroom, accompanied by Miss Minnie Gallop on the piano. Dancing was enjoyed. At a late hour the friends of Mrs. Burns and Mr. Petrofski left for home after extending their best wishes for a happy future.

Valuable Pasture Grass

Bermuda grass is the most important pasture grass of the South, where it shows marked preference for clay soils. In Virginia and Maryland, where it is more troublesome as a weed than valuable as a forage, it is commonly called wire grass. Bermuda grass is the plant most used for pastures and lawns in the South.

Some Benefit From War

The influence of war upon the progress of a country is great in the nature of a stimulus to scientific research. The World War led to a number of inventions not only in objects of warfare but in industrial pursuits. There were many new developments in medicine and in hygiene. In Germany much of the research was directed to the production of substitutes for articles that could not be imported.

New York Leads in Cabbage Growing

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 11.—New York still maintains its lead this year as the foremost cabbage-growing state in the country according to a state-federal report issued by the state department of agriculture and markets.

Of a total acreage of about 42,000 acres of cabbage in the United States this year, New York has more than one half while Wisconsin, its nearest competitor, has less than one fourth the total acreage. Considering production only, New York has much more than 50 per cent of the total cabbage production of the country.

The Danish cabbage crop is moving to consuming centers and to storage rapidly. Out of a total national production of about 354,500 tons of Danish, it is estimated that New York has this year about 243,650. Last year this state produced about 204,399 tons out of a total production of 23,399 tons.

Dry weather during September shortened the crop somewhat through western New York but in the central portion of the state more rainfall resulted in yields somewhat higher and with heads considerably larger.

Armored Vests Sold to French Statesmen

Paris.—Coats of mail that flatten bullets and turn the points of daggers are back in favor, thanks to the gunman and the spirit of unrest.

"Dozens of French 'armorers' sell these secret protections and two, at least, specialize in them. Statesmen and even criminals are among the customers of these shops which deal principally in old armor and arms for collectors and make ancient war costumes for the operas and theaters.

The "secret vest" most used is of small, finely-tempered chrome steel scales. The usual form is a close-fitting shirt that reaches from just below the collar-line to well below the waist. It weighs five and one-half pounds and is quite flexible. The chain type is made of an infinite number of small steel links woven into a mesh.

A less elaborate protection is a very slightly overlapping set of scales sewed inside an ordinary vest to give limited protection. This form is lighter and cheaper. A mail shirt costs about $100 and the vest lining about $80.

Anthropological Test Determines Parentage

Vienna.—The paternity of a child has been established to the satisfaction of a Vienna court by anthropological tests, made by Professor Reche of the University of Vienna clinic. Examination and comparison of distinctive marks is the basis of the test. Only 50,000 persons out of 500,000 have identical "papillary grading," according to Doctor Reche. Of these only 10,000 will be found to possess heads of the same general shape. In the third test perhaps only 500 will show noses of similarity and hardly 100 of the number will have ears of the same type.

Fewer than 20 will show the same shaped eye and only five the same color of hair and eyes. Finally but one person remains whose fingers show papillary drawings similar to those of the child whose parentage is being sought.
